

C1 REMAINS COMMITTED TO BUILDING COMMUNITY AT THE INTERSECTION OF ART AND SOCIAL CHANGE

We are unequivocally dedicated to shaping a better future for Boston and beyond, alongside you and our many community partners who are also responding to this moment with resources and actions.

As Boston's Theatre for the People, we are working together towards a more just and equitable future.

And we are not going anywhere.

As our communities prepare for an increase in racist, sexist, homophobic, transphobic, imperialist, xenophobic, and ableist policies, it is vital we come together to support, care for, defend, and love each other.

In this political moment, some of us will find meaning in taking direct action or creating art, while others need a pause to heal.

Whatever feels right for you, we hope you find comfort in knowing that you are not alone.

WE ENCOURAGE YOU TO JOIN US IN AMPLIFYING AND SUPPORTING THE FOLLOWING RESOURCES AND ACTION STEPS:

- » Are you a LGBTQIA+ youth or young adult? Join BAGLY for a hybrid post-election self-care on November 7
- » Attend ds4si's upcoming events for collective healing and reimagining forms of radical action:
 - » Social Emergency Response Center on November 8
 - » Rez & The Hood: Institution Building and Place-Keeping on November 12
- » In need of some crafting community? Check out this week's offerings at Boston Fiber Company
- » Learn more about the histories and ongoing legacies of Black utopian movements in America with Boston Ujima Project:
 - » #BlackTrust: Black Utopias, Then & Now on November 13
 - » Land, Labor, Legacy on November 20
- » Learn about how federal and state-level election results will impact the creative sector and the future of community organizing at MASSCreative Action Network's panel conversation on November 15
- » Attend Asian American Resource Center Boston's Annual Meeting on November 17 to build connections, process the election, and deepen your commitments to social justice
- » Take action with the Planned Parenthood Advocacy Fund of Massachusetts