

September 12, 2017

Position: ONERush Member (Fall 2017)

Description: Company One Theatre seeks ambitious, outgoing, self-motivated individuals to be part of a community engagement department fall program focused on connecting students from Greater Boston Area colleges and universities.

The ONERush program runs through the fall semester and involves students from different colleges/universities in and around the Boston area who will work together to achieve the following:

- Design events around Company One's engagement programming and season 19 that will provide opportunities for students from different colleges/universities to meet each other, network, and enjoy theater
- Act as Company One Theatre Ambassadors at their respective colleges/universities

This is an internship position with responsibilities that include:

- Attending and actively participating in meetings every other Sunday at 11 AM
- Representing other Company One sponsored events like read-throughs, launch parties, and more
- Planning and executing college-centric events with other ONERush members
- Representing Company One and ONERush at interactive events and student groups at your college/university campus

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate student enrolled full or part-time at a college/university in the Greater Boston area
- Must be responsible, with ability and time to commit to ONERush and its projects
- A self-starter, who can work both independently and collaboratively with a team
- Passion for Company One's mission

What you get from ONERush:

- Complimentary tickets to Company One events this semester
- Be a part of a professional theatre company
- Build your resume and connections within your field
- Gain networking experience with Company One staff members
- Potential to fulfill required volunteer hours
- Potential to receive credit through your college/university
- Opportunities for paid community engagement work depending on company's needs (e.g. lobby duty, postering, etc.)

About Company One:

Company One Theatre was founded in 1998 to integrate Boston audiences, challenge the city's social divides and foster a new generation of theatre-makers and theatergoers. Since then we have become a nationally renowned, award-winning theatre company in residence at the Boston Center for the Arts. Our mission is to change the face of Boston theatre by uniting the city's diverse communities through innovative, socially provocative performance and developing civically engaged artists.

Application Deadline: Applications accepted on a rolling basis, with priority given to applications submitted by September 24th 2017.

How to Apply:

Please email cover letter and resume.

Attention: Natasha Bonfield, College Coordinator

Subject line: ONERUSH MEMBER

Email: nbonfield@companyone.org

Company One Theatre is an equal opportunity employer. Candidates of color, LGBTQA+ candidates, and women candidates are very strongly encouraged to apply.