

April 11, 2017

Position: ONERush Member (Summer)

Description: Company One Theatre seeks ambitious, outgoing, self-motivated individuals to be part of a community engagement department summer program focused on connecting students from Greater Boston Area colleges and universities.

The summer ONERush program runs June through August and involves students from different colleges/universities in and around the Boston area who will work together to achieve the following:

- Design events around Company One's summer show, LEFTOVERS, that will provide opportunities for students from different colleges/universities to meet each other, network, and enjoy theater
- Act as Company One Theatre Ambassadors at their respective colleges/universities

This is an internship position with responsibilities that include:

- Attending and actively participating in meetings every Sunday at 11 am
- Planning and executing college-centric events around LEFTOVERS with other ONERush members
- Representing Company One Theatre and ONERush at any summer interactive events held on your college/university campus

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate student enrolled full or part-time at a college/university in the Greater Boston area
- Must be responsible, with ability and time to commit to ONERush and its projects
- A self-starter, who can work both independently and collaboratively with a team
- Passion for Company One's mission

What you get from ONERush:

- Complimentary tickets to LEFTOVERS
- Be a part of a professional theatre company
- Build your resume and connections within your field
- Gain networking experience with Company One staff members
- Potential to fulfill required volunteer hours
- Potential to receive credit through your college/university
- Opportunities for paid community engagement work depending on company's needs (eg lobby duty, poster, etc.)
- Potential to continue with ONERush program into the fall semester

About Company One:

Company One Theatre was founded in 1998 to integrate Boston audiences, challenge the city's social divides and foster a new generation of theatre-makers and theatergoers. Since then we have become a nationally renowned, award-winning theatre company in residence at the Boston Center for the Arts. Our mission is to change the face of Boston theatre by uniting the city's diverse communities through innovative, socially provocative performance and developing civically engaged artists.

Application Deadline: Applications accepted on a rolling basis, with priority given to applications submitted by May 2017.

How to apply:

Company One Theatre is an equal opportunity employer. Candidates of color, LGBTQA+ candidates, and women candidates are very strongly encouraged to apply.
