You For Me For You

a New England Premiere by Providence Playwright

Mia Chung

Directed by M. Bevin O’Gara

“One of the most imaginative young writers of her generation.”

-Howard Shalwitz, Woolly Mammoth

“ENDLESSLY CREATIVE”

- The Washingtonian

Two sisters strike a dangerous bargain to flee their homeland. It costs more than money to make the passage, but The Crossing always does. When faced with a world of new shoes, intelligent phones, and forty-two ways to treat your cough, can a sister’s promise bridge the gaps of time and space? Playwright Mia Chung conjures an imaginative, and unexpectedly funny journey about defecting from North Korea to America, and back again.
