

Company One presents...

The Pain and the Itch

A Boston premiere by Bruce Norris

Directed by M. Bevin O’Gara - Featuring Nancy E. Carroll

"The best new play in many a season..." - The NY Observer

"Captivates an audience from start to finish." - Chicago Free Press

Company One is proud to present the Boston premiere of Bruce Norris’ controversial play THE PAIN AND THE ITCH, featuring Nancy E. Carroll. With a young daughter in serious need of attention and a ravenous creature possibly prowling the upstairs bedrooms, what begins as an average Thanksgiving for one privileged family unravels into an exposé of disastrous choices and less-than-altruistic motives. THE PAIN AND THE ITCH is a scathing satire of the politics of class and race, a compelling, painfully human examination of denial and its consequences. Following sold out runs at Chicago’s Steppenwolf Theatre and New York’s Playwright’s Horizons, Company One is proud to stage this highly anticipated Boston premiere.
