

October 18, 2016

Position: ONERush Member

Description: Company One Theatre seeks ambitious, outgoing, self-motivated individuals to be part of a community engagement department focused on connecting students from Greater Boston Area colleges and universities.

ONERush is a collection of students from different colleges/universities in and around the Boston area who work together to achieve the following:

- Act as Company One Theatre Ambassadors at their respective colleges/universities.
- Build and maintain a partnership with a specific non-theater, mission-compatible student group on their campus.
- Provides opportunities and space for students from different colleges/universities to meet each other, network, and enjoy theater.

This is an internship position with responsibilities that include:

- Attending and actively participating in meetings every other Sunday at 11 am
- Representing Company One Theatre and ONERush at your college/university's interactive events
- Acting as a liaison between a non-theater mission-compatible student group on your campus and Company One Theatre
- Planning and executing college-centric events throughout the year

Qualifications:

- Undergraduate student enrolled full or part-time at a college/university in the Greater Boston area
- Must be responsible, with ability and time to commit to ONERush and its projects
- A self-starter, who can work both independently and collaboratively with a team
- Passion for Company One Theatre's mission

What you get from ONERush:

- Complimentary membership to Company One Theatre's season
- Be a part of a professional theatre company
- Build your resume and connections within your field
- Gain networking experience with Company One staff members
- Potential to fulfill required volunteer hours
- Potential to receive credit through your college/university
- Opportunities for paid community engagement work depending on company's needs (eg lobby duty, poster, etc.)

About Company One:

Company One Theatre was founded in 1998 to integrate Boston audiences, challenge the city's social divides and foster a new generation of theatre-makers and theatergoers. Since then we have become a nationally renowned, award-winning theatre company in residence at the Boston Center for the Arts. Our mission is to change the face of Boston theatre by uniting the city's diverse communities through innovative, socially provocative performance and developing civically engaged artists.

Application Deadline: Applications accepted on a rolling basis, with priority given to applications submitted by December, 2016

How to apply:

Company One Theatre is an equal opportunity employer. Candidates of color, LGBTQA+ candidates, and women candidates are very strongly encouraged to apply.
