- Preparing and delivering appropriate instruction determined by the school and the Director of Education
- Handling student issues in an appropriate and responsible manner
- Maintaining ongoing communication with school personnel regarding school logistics, policies, and procedures
- Attending all scheduled teacher training/professional development sessions (as determined by the Education Programs Manager)
- Attending quarterly meetings with the Education Programs Manager for the duration of the academic year
- Maintaining a shared document of your curricular goals, plans, and reflection

REQUIREMENTS:

- Teaching experience and/or work with middle and high school students
- Theatre content knowledge
- Excellent communication skills
- Energetic
- Self-motivated
- Organized
- Culturally responsive

Supervisor: Education Director

Position: Part Time Exempt

Compensation: $50 per teaching hour, $20 per professional development/meeting hour and additional professional development opportunities.

ABOUT US

MISSION:

Company One Theatre builds community at the intersection of art and social change.

VISION:

A Boston defined by justice, equity, and artistic innovation.

Welcome to our community, where every audience member, artist, student, and supporter has the opportunity to fight for social justice.

At C1...

- We strive to create intentional, authentic theatrical experiences that uniquely integrate content, style, space, and community.
- We amplify new stories and adventurous theatrical forms to define what's next in the American theatre.
- We focus on growing our students' authority, voice, and point of view, while developing artists into the next generation of change makers.
- Our work is responsive to what's happening in our city, nation, and world.
- We work towards justice by challenging inequity and oppressive systems.
- Innovation, forward thinking, and collaboration lead the way.
- We center our work on reciprocal relationships with community partners.
- Representation is an act of social justice.
- Our growth is motivated by questioning the status quo, internally and externally.
- We strive for artistic excellence as defined by our collective community.
