

Company One Theatre: In-School Teaching Artist

Company One Theatre (C1) is seeking a highly motivated individual to join the organization as an In-School Teaching Artist. C1's Education Department, Stage One, facilitates theatre elective and theatre integration residencies in Boston Public Schools with middle and high school students aged 11-22. These residencies run the full school year and operate at differing schedules based on the school's individual needs.

The In-School Teaching Artist is responsible for the following:

- Attending all classes to which you are assigned for the duration of the academic year
- Preparing and delivering appropriate instruction determined by the school and the Director of Education
- Handling student issues in an appropriate and responsible manner
- Maintaining ongoing communication with school personnel regarding school logistics, policies, and procedures in a collegial and appropriate way
- Attending all scheduled teacher training/professional development sessions (as determined by the Education Programs Manager)
- Attending quarterly meetings with the Education Programs Manager for the duration of the academic year
- Maintaining a shared document of your curricular goals, plans, and reflection

REQUIREMENTS:

- Teaching experience and/or work with middle and high school students
- Theatre content knowledge
- Excellent communication skills
- Energetic
- Self-motivated
- Organized
- Culturally responsive

Compensation: Starting at $50/hour for teaching; $20/hour for professional development/meeting time.

How to Apply

Please submit your resume and cover letter to:

Mark VanDerzee, Education Director

mvanderzee@companyone.org

Include "In School Teaching Artist" in the subject line.

Not sure you meet all our qualifications? Research shows^[1] that men apply for jobs when they meet about half of the criteria, but women and people who are systemically marginalized tend to only apply if they meet every requirement. If you believe that you should be considered for this role we encourage you to apply. Whether you're new to the arts, returning to work after a gap in employment, or simply looking to transition into a new field, we will be glad to receive your materials. Please use a cover letter to tell us more about yourself and about your interest in the arts and this role.

ABOUT COMPANY ONE THEATRE

MISSION: Company One Theatre builds community at the intersection of art and social change.

VISION: A Boston defined by justice, equity, and artistic innovation.

MANIFESTO: Welcome to our community, where every audience member, artist, student, and supporter has the opportunity to fight for social justice. At C1...

- We strive to create intentional, authentic theatrical experiences that uniquely integrate content, style, space, and community.
- We amplify new stories and adventurous theatrical forms to define what's next in the American theatre.
- We focus on growing our students' authority, voice, and point of view, while developing artists into the next generation of change-makers.
- Our work is responsive to what's happening in our city, nation, and world.
- We work towards justice by challenging inequity and oppressive systems.
- Innovation, forward thinking, and collaboration lead the way.
- We center our work on reciprocal relationships with community partners.
- Representation is an act of social justice.
- Our growth is motivated by questioning the status quo, internally and externally.
- We strive for artistic excellence as defined by our collective community.

^[1] <https://hbr.org/2014/08/why-women-dont-apply-for-jobs-unless-theyre-100-qualified>