A new play by Boston's own Miranda Austen ADEkoje, A New Era will take place at Dorchester's historic Strand Theatre from July 18 - August 8, 2026.

Joining the production's host committee is a free way to support Company One's efforts to make sure this production—which is free to attend, with Pay-What-You-Want tickets—is seen by as many people as possible.

HOST COMMITTEE RESPONSIBILITIES

- Attend at least one of our 2 offered Zoom check ins to learn more about the play from members of the production team, and receive all of the messaging and collateral you will need to effectively share this show with your community.
- These check ins will be held on Wednesday June 24 at 12:30pm and Thursday July 9th at 6pm
- If you cannot make one of these meetings, we'll be in touch to schedule a 1:1 conversation.

OUTREACH EXPECTATIONS

- Individuals on host committee are expected to bring 2 groups of 4 people or more to a selected performance or event, and to share about this show with your community via putting a flyer up in a space, post on social media, or emailing/texting folks in your community.
- Organizations on host committee are expected to bring 2 groups of 6 people or more to a selected performance or event, share about this show with your community by including the show in a social media story, sharing it in an email newsletter, or putting a flyer up in your space.

IN RETURN, HOST COMMITTEE MEMBERS WILL...

- Join us for a special reception with the cast and creative team on opening and closing night where we will have free snacks and drinks.
- Have one of your organization's events uplifted on our social media stories anytime, and/or as a part of one of our eblasts during the production period.
- Get recognized by having your name or the name of your organization on our host committee program insert, and on the host committee drop down on our production webpage.
- If you bring a group of 10, each of your members receive some C1 swag!
- If you bring the most people out of anyone on the host committee throughout the production, win a gift card for a meal for two to a local restaurant in Dorchester!
